YWAM SF Moving... Again

Where to begin?, is the question that comes to mind when I think of the many moving adventures that have been faced by our YWAM Strategic Frontiers base in Colorado Springs.

We are presently taking temporary residence in the World Prayer Center on the New Life campus on Colorado Springs north side. This is only a temporary solution for our need to find a permanent home to base the ministry. We have been abundantly blessed with overflowing schools of young people seeking to serve God and change the nations for his kingdom.

Please pray for us as we seek a resolution to this problem and are faced with a time deadline of August because of our schools starting in the fall.

Land To Build

Recently a dream came true for our family. We closed on a piece of land at a local airport. This is just the beginning of a long process for us to be able to build and make a home and ministry base here in Colorado Springs.

You may be rereading the section about where we purchased land but yes it is correct, We bought a piece of land at a local airport and there is a taxiway attached to our land.

There are still many developments underway but the aviation ministry that we started in Afghanistan now has developed to a point that we need to send over additional teachers.

In the near future in addition to continuing my work with the Homefront support for our field workers in Afghanistan, we may also begin YWAM's first aviation training program here in Colorado Springs. I will give more details as things develop but needless to say we have big dreams for this land.

Many things in need to come in line for us to begin such as funds to build and an aircraft as well as other experienced flight instructors and aviation mechanics.

Please pray for God's provision and clear direction for all our steps carrying forward.

AFGHANISTAN

CONSTITUTIONAL CONFLICT

Because of the time and space it would take to explain the full story of what has happened with Abdul Rahman, the Christian convert who under went criminal prosecution one month ago, I have included an article with our newsletter that best describes the depth of this conflict and the constitutional Crisis that is being faced by Afghanistan.

Please pray for our team and other like minded workers on the field who are now under increased scrutiny. We need the Prince of peace to bring his peace to this land that has been ravaged by destruction and division for far too long.

Some Inspiring Thought's

Malachi 3:3 says: "He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver."

This verse puzzled some women in a Bible study and they wondered what this statement meant about the character and nature of God. One of the women offered to find out the process of refining silver and get back to the group at their next Bible Study.

That week, the woman called a silversmith and made an appointment to watch him at work. She didn't mention anything about the reason for her interest beyond her curiosity about the process of refining silver.

As she watched the silversmith, he held a piece of silver over the fire and let it heat up. He explained that in refining silver, one needed to hold the silver in the middle of the fire where the flames were hottest as to burn away all the impurities.

The woman thought about God holding us in such a hot spot; then she thought again about the verse that says: "He sits as a refiner and purifier of silver." She asked the silversmith if it was true that he had to sit there in front of the fire the whole time the silver was being refined.

The man answered that yes, he not only had to sit there holding the silver, but he had to keep his eyes on the silver the entire time it was in the fire. If the silver was left a moment too long in the flames, it would be destroyed.

The woman was silent for a moment. Then she asked the silversmith, "How do you know when the silver is fully refined?" He smiled at her and answered, "Oh, that's easy -- when I see my image in it."

If today you are feeling the heat of the fire, remember that God has his eye on you and will keep watching you until He sees His image in you.
